

Least Restrictive Environment

Creating an Educational Community to Serve

ALL Students

Administrators' Academy Course #1030

This is an introductory course on leadership to develop Least Restrictive Environment (LRE) in schools. It is designed to assist district and building level administrators in creating an educational community that meets the needs of all students within the general education classroom. This is the first course of three in a continuum of experiences to promote leadership in the development of LRE. This interactive session will utilize current brain research and educational environment data as administrators analyze and assess current delivery systems.
